GENERAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS

You are required to take your new puppy to a licensed veterinarian within 72 hours of receiving, to get a well puppy check up for his health guarantee to be valid, along with keeping the puppy up to date on vaccinations and dewormings, which are recommended by your veterinarian. Until the puppy's vaccinations are finished it is recommended that you should not expose your puppy to contaminated areas such as public parks, stores, or around other dogs that you don't know to be healthy. This puts your puppy at higher risk of getting a life threatening illness.

If during the first 6 months after bringing your puppy home, it is found to have a congenital defect, you must have this confirmed by 2 vets, (one chosen by the buyer and one by the seller) If the puppy dies of reasons, determined by autopsy from the state department of animal health, that are incurable or unavoidable, said puppy will be replaced with one of equal value/sex as soon as one becomes available, time frame determined by Seller. Problems that are avoidable with vaccinations such as parvo, corona, viral infections, worms, pneumonia, diarrhea, coccidiosis, hypoglycemia, stress are not covered under this guarantee. Seller does not cover luxating patella. All veterinarian expenses are the responsibility of the buyer. All shipping and transportation expenses for the puppy are the responsibility of the buyer. All puppies are sold as pets; there is no guarantee on the disposition, size, color, molera, or breeding ability(i.e. free whelping or testicles).

Seller has first refusal if buyer finds that he/she cannot keep the puppy. Seller will accept the puppy back or will attempt to place said puppy with another owner, without being obligated to refund any part of the sale price. It is agreed that at no time will the buyer sell or give said puppy to another individual or a dog pound/humane society/rescue organization or in any other way removing said puppy without first notifying the seller.

Buyer will be responsible for all court costs and/or attorneys fees incurred by the seller to uphold this agreement.
